

Kathy from Elkhart is a cancer patient undergoing chemotherapy. Under ObamaCare, she now has to pay over $1,200 a month just for her own coverage.

Barton, a small business owner, said his group premiums will increase up to 80 percent this year.

These are serious problems causing incredible hardships for the very people we represent.

It is time to work on commonsense reforms that will lower health care costs and improve the quality of care for our constituents.

If we work together, we can get it done.

JUST KEEP TRYING

(Mr. DANNY K. DAVIS of Illinois asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DANNY K. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, Kathy Kanak can be persistent. Late last Wednesday, the 57-year-old of Libertyville became one of the first known enrollees of health insurance at the glitch-stricken online marketplace operated by the Federal Government for 36 States, including Illinois. "I just kept trying," she said. "Tell people to just keep trying, and they will get in eventually."

With Federal tax credits, the Kanaks will pay about $260 a month in premiums less than what they paid before. They will be able to retain their family doctor and their dentist, and their annual deductible will drop to $1,500 from $5,000.

Just keep trying.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, the House of Representatives has voted numerous times to repeal ObamaCare, but the President finally admitted today that ObamaCare is just not working. And so to save his flawed legislation, he has decided to selectively enforce the law, the individual mandate, the idea that you can keep your own insurance. He says he won't enforce the fine for noncompliance for 1 year.

His method is unconstitutional. The Constitution requires Congress to write, rewrite, and amend laws. No President can just use administrative discretion to not enforce laws or change the law. Administrative discretion is just not mentioned in the Constitution. Selective enforcement violates the 14th Amendment.

No President can just administratively change any law. What's next? Is he going to raise taxes by administrative order?

Congress must write the law. The President must enforce the law.

The House will address this very issue legally tomorrow by bringing up legislation that now the President seems to support. I assume the former constitutional law professor will sign on this excellent legislation that you can keep your insurance if you like it.

And that's just the way it is.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. ROTHFUS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROTHFUS. Mr. Speaker, over 200,000 Pennsylvanians have been notified that they will lose their plans because of President Obama's health care law. What these numbers don't tell you are the stories of hardworking western Pennsylvanians like Don and Karen from Johnstown.

Don is a Marine Corps veteran and former coal miner. He and Karen run a ministry that helps people in developing countries. Don recently let me know that he will lose his plan. He said:

I specifically bought a health plan that met my needs. I liked my plan very much and it was something I could afford.

When Don and Karen were able to get onto the Web site, the plan he was offered had a deductible of more than $6,000. In Don's words, this is "ridiculous and unaffordable."

Unfortunately, their story is not unique. We need health care reform that works for Don and Karen and the rest of the American people. The Empowering Patients First Act and the American Health Care Reform Act provide a good place to start and a better way on health care reform.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. MULLIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MULLIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to say enough is enough. Enough of the rhetoric. Enough of the dishonesty.

Promises have been broken. We face critical situations that need to be made right. Countless Americans, and many within the Second District of Oklahoma, are going to their mailboxes only to learn that the health insurance plan they liked is being canceled.

In the House, we have chosen to listen to the American people through the Keep Your Health Plan Act. Individuals can actually keep the plan they like, and we can clean up the damage done by this administration's failures.

Aside from the consequences on individuals, business owners like me also face mounting regulations and penalties as a result of ObamaCare. Small businesses provide stability to our economy and employ millions of Americans. That stability has been jeopardized by the result of ObamaCare.

I will not sit back and watch Americans be subject to empty promises with no solution in sight. I encourage my colleagues to join me in saying enough is enough and vote in support of the Keep Your Health Plan Act.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. GARDNER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. GARDNER. Mr. Speaker, as my colleagues today have already pointed out, the President made this promise to the American people:

If you like your health care plan, you will be able to keep your health care plan. Period.

I have in my hand a letter sent to my office from Noel, from Akron, Colorado, in my district. This is, in part, what it says:

I am a 37-year-old automotive mechanic in the family business, volunteer firefighter, devout Catholic. My wife, Heather, is a 33-year-old third grade teacher. Our daughter is 2 years old, our son is 1 year old, and our third child is due in March. I recently received a letter from Rocky Mountain Health Plan stating that my existing policy is canceled as of January 1, 2014, due to mandated government policies.

250,000 Coloradans have lost their insurance. That is more people than have now signed up across this country, nationwide, for ObamaCare.

Noel, you are not alone. I join you because I too lost my health insurance when I chose to opt out of the congressional coverage, one of the 250,000 people that lost our coverage. And it is time for this President to uphold his promise to the American people.

OBAMACARE

(Mr. BUCSHON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BUCSHON. Mr. Speaker, as a physician, my goal is to make certain that every American has access to quality, affordable health care.

The President and congressional Democrats promised that you can keep your health insurance if you like it. Well, we learned yesterday that in my home State of Indiana, only 701 Hoosiers have signed up successfully for the Affordable Care Act, while over 108,000 Hoosiers have had their current plans canceled. I think the people of Indiana know this promise has not been kept.

Mary, from Evansville, Indiana, wrote to me about this very thing. She said:

Our insurance is excellent. I had a heart attack a year ago. We met our deductible this year, but insurance has paid for everything recommended, 2 months of cardiac rehab, prescriptions, and even more surgery. My insurance and my doctors saved my life, and now I am at risk of losing both.

On Facebook, Andrea wrote that she was able to extend her plan for her and her son till next December, then it
